Superbroker Dolly Lenz and the De Niro Group, led by Raphael De Niro, took home the top prizes at this year's Prudential Douglas Elliman company awards last night. Lenz won the award for top individual based on both gross commission income and transactions, while the De Niro Group took home the prize for top team based on commission income. The Joyce Kafati-Batarse Team took home the top team prize for number of transactions. The Leonard Steinberg-Luxury Loft Group was the second-place team, based on gross commission income. TRD
